'Sittings'

On busy nights such as 'Monday Night Madness,' Valentines and weekends it may be required for us to take bookings in 'sittings.'

This means that we will offer you a two hour booking time, for example if you book at 7pm, we will ask you to kindly leave the table by 9pm.

Your departure time will be specified to you at the time of booking. We appreciate your understanding and ask you to be mindful of your departure time to enable us to turn the table around ready for the next booking.

We will always try to accommodate your wishes so if you are not quite ready to leave and we have another table become available we will always try to avoid asking you to leave.
